Agreed.

I will uncross toes after the publication has actually happened.

Also, I think we will hear today by 3pm.

I won't be working all day, so... saying this now.. thanks again for all of your help and I hope you have a nice weekend with the familia.

I did get a sterno burner in addition to my buffet server.. probably too much food as usually but at least it will be warm and delicious.

Haha, I think it's safe to uncross your fingers, but maybe leave the toes crossed just in case :)

hmm. I was thinking we would hear today for publication on Monday... but I figured I would go out to Wed to win...

So something weird happened yesterday.. my fingers are still crossed.. how to fix this? How will I stuff a turkey with crossed fingers?

Hi Diedra,

The Final SEIS has been uploaded and is available on regulations.gov as a supporting document: <https://www.regulations.gov/docket?D=EPA-R01-OW-2016-0239>

The FRL # for this rule is 17 001.

I will be in all day tomorrow if you need anything else. Thank you and have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Hi Deidra,

Thank you for your edits. All of your changes are "approved".

Alicia has uploaded documents to the docket and the documents should be available for your view later today.

The documents are also posted to the EPA R1 website, " <https://www.epa.gov/ocean-dumping/final-supplemental-environmental-impact-statement-eastern-long-island-sound>".

The FRL for the FSEIS is on the coversheet submitted to you.

The title of the supporting document is the " Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement for the Designation of Dredged Material Disposal Site(s) in Eastern Long Island Sound, Connecticut and New York – Final”

Please let us know when the publication date will be and please let us know if you have any questions.

Thanks, Jeannie
